THE ENERGY

OVERVIEW

Imagine the energy and showmanship of a pro-wrestling entrance, but instead of a wrestler, it's the next big cannabis product or brand, captivating the audience from the moment they step onto the stage. The bigger and more captivating the product's entrance, the greater the response from the eager audience, and this is precisely what The Crop Drop promises to deliver.

THE FOCUS

MISSION & GOALS

Mission and Goals: The Crop Drop's main goal is to connect cannabis producers to a network that reaches consumers directly. The mission is to facilitate immediate product sales, create demand, and become the go-to source for top-quality cannabis products. By establishing a pipeline to the renowned cannabis region, the Emerald Triangle, The Crop Drop aims to provide the industry with access to exceptional products without the need for a 16-hour round trip. Additionally, the event seeks to showcase Canna Mart as a venue and encourage distributors, retailers, and delivery services to join the Gram Bunny App, a new mobile platform that connects users with cannabis options in real-time.
